The Cholera—Interesting Correspondence.

The following correspondence [illegible]

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, Sept. 1, 1865.

To His Excellency the Governor of the State of California, Sacramento City, Cal.: Your Excellency's special attention is invited to the accompanying letter of the Acting Surgeon General of the Army, to which the dispatch from the United States Minister at Constantinople, which it mentions, was referred. The expediency of adopting sanitary measures for the purpose of preventing the introduction of Asiatic cholera into this country seems well worthy of consideration.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's obedient servant,
WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C., Aug. 29, 1865.

Hon. William H. Seward, Secretary of State—Sir: In the absence of the Surgeon General I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 24th instant, enclosing dispatch from Mr. Morris, Minister resident of the United States at Constantinople, relative to the ravages of the cholera in that quarter, etc., and would most respectfully recommend that the attention of Governors of States be invited to the facts contained therein, with a view to the prompt establishment of good quarantine regulations to prevent, if possible, the introduction of cholera into this country.

The dispatch from Mr. Morris and enclosed paper are herewith respectfully returned.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
C. H. CRANE,
Acting Surgeon General.

LEGATION OF UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
CONSTANTINOPLE.

Hon. William H. Seward, Secretary of State—Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of dispatch No. 90.

I regret to be obliged to state that the cholera continues to extend its ravages, notwithstanding the efforts making by the Government to arrest its progress. Whatever may be the opinion of medical men, it is evident that it is propagated by contagion, as it showed itself in the locality where the first death from an Egyptian man of war took place, and has thence gradually extended itself over the Christian quarter of Pera, and through Stamboul, Constantinople proper. In the most infected region, Cassim Pacha, where it originally broke out—a quarter inhabited chiefly by workmen connected with the navy yard, and situated in a low valley, encompassed by high hills, with imperfect drainage—it has been very fatal, having attacked almost the entire population. Such have been its ravages there that the Government has ordered all the large khans and buildings, occupied by many persons together, to be vacated, and has provided tents for them on the heights surrounding the city.

Had proper quarantine measures been taken at first the introduction of the cholera from Egypt might have been prevented. It seems to me from our experience here, that it will be advisable in the United States to guard against it by the most rigid quarantine regulations. Otherwise, if it once enters the country, it will be very fatal, in consequence of the great destitution prevailing in Virginia and other of the Southern States, and of the disease which always follows in the train of war.

The published number of deaths per day now is about one hundred and sixty, but they are known to largely exceed that number. The whole number from the origin of the disease to the present time is about two thousand.

A great panic prevails among the population, particularly the Christian portion of it, and the people are fleeing by thousands in every direction from the city. It is hoped, however, that the sanitary measures adopted by the Government, and carried out with great energy, will have the effect sooner or later to arrest the epidemic.

With great respect, your obedient servant,
E. JOY MORRIS.

THE CHOLERA.

To the Editor of the Levant Herald—Sir: During the prevalence of the cholera morbus in the different parts of Turkey, any remarks that may tend to the better knowledge of the mysterious disease and its development may be acceptable, and I have therefore taken the liberty of addressing you the following, the result of my observations.

Cholera can be communicated:

1. By persons direct, who carry the seeds of the disease or vitiated air with them.

2. By clothes or other articles used by the sick.

3. By infected vessels or lazarettos, which, though isolated, are near healthy towns, and those generating vitiated air, it soon passes the imaginary boundaries of quarantine.

To prove [illegible] these assertions I may remark:

1st. The cholera in the present instance was introduced in Arabia by pilgrims from India, bringing with them the seeds of the disease. It did not develop itself until the period of the Courban Bairam, when the thousands of animals sacrificed, [illegible] from a camel downward, were left to putrify, [illegible] combined with the [illegible] of the Holy Hill by the pilgrims bare headed, in a burning tropical sun, and the free use of all kinds of unwholesome fruits and vegetables, was immediately succeeded by the outbreak of the disease. At Djiddah it assumed a comparatively mild form, only ten per cent. of the cases proving fatal. The pilgrims in their passage through Egypt communicated the disease which unfortunately proved to be of a much more fatal type.

This cholera was also introduced into Turkey, at the commencement of the Crimean war, by a French steamer with troops from Algiers. On her arrival at Gallipoli it was whispered a few cases had occurred during the voyage. The troops were, however, landed, in a few days cholera raged, and the French lost upward of 2,000 men from this disease in that place. From Gallipoli the disease was introduced into the French hospital at [illegible] by a few patients attacked with the [illegible] sent from thence. Nearly the whole of the other patients were shortly after taken with cholera. [illegible]

2d. The disease from Abydos hospital was communicated to the Dardanelles. The first persons attacked were the washerwoman and her daughter, who washed the dirty linen sent to them from the hospital. They died, and the malady soon spread in the town.

3d. [illegible] the present outbreak of cholera the [illegible] the vessels and passengers from Alexandria [illegible] the [illegible] beyond the vessels and [illegible] of the lazaretto, [illegible] at Constantinople, Smyrna and Dardanelles, where it communicated [illegible] to the immediate neighborhood [illegible] Egyptian [illegible] from [illegible] the Dardanelles, [illegible] landed in the [illegible] as far as we can [illegible] vessels [illegible] quarantine [illegible] although the disease [illegible] other [illegible] that cholera can be communicated when the vicinity is too close, [illegible] quarantine and all its precautions [illegible]

Some [illegible] should have been chosen for the [illegible] vessels coming from [illegible] and there to perform their quarantine [illegible] of the numerous islands of the Archipelago, [illegible] the healthy [illegible] of Turkey. I am, [illegible]

Dardanelles, [illegible] July, 1865.

THE TOMATO AS FOOD.—A good medical authority ascribes to the tomato the following very important medical qualities:

First. That the tomato is one of the most powerful aperients of the liver and other organs, [illegible] the most effective and least harmful [illegible] known to the profession.

Second. That a chemical extract will be obtained from it that will supersede the use of calomel in the cure of disease.

Third. That he has successfully treated diarrhoea with this article alone.

Fourth. That when used as an article of diet it is almost a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion.

Fifth. That it should be constantly used for daily food. Either cooked or raw, or in the form of catsup, it is the most healthy article now in use.

THE RULING PASSION [illegible] knows more ways than one [illegible] It will be remembered that when the Democratic Convention was held last year, [illegible] that there was a good deal of [illegible] him he humbly declined a nomination. The Convention sent a Committee to learn [illegible] final, and he told them it was his [illegible] to retire, and couldn't accept the nomination; but if the Convention saw fit to [illegible] his administration, by unanimously tendering him a nomination, he would regard it as a favor. The inference was that he would decline it, [illegible] and the nomination was to be given as a compliment only, and to be returned. The [illegible] fell into the trap, and [illegible] was caught and held. So, lately at the Diocesan Convention, he tried the same game, and with equal [illegible] and success. When the election of General Deputies was to take place, he [illegible] at his blandest tones declined the [illegible] which he was designated upon the printed ballot already in circulation. His private concerns absorbed his time to such an extent that he was neglecting the affairs of the church. The Convention did as the other one did, and elected Seymour. He didn't afterwards decline. That isn't his way. Now it is a fact that many leading men and women in the Church deeply regret the placing of a man esteemed as semi-disloyal in the position of their representative. But while they feel hurt by this action brought about by concerted action on the part of those who feel bound to support Seymour because he's a leading Democratic politician—they will labor the more earnestly to correct the evil influence.—Rochester Express.

HISTORICAL HAIR.—The ill-fated beauty, Beatrice de Cenci, was remarkable for her beautiful golden hair; and a golden lock that once glittered on the head of Lucretia Borgia, now lies quietly among the treasures of the Vatican. Queen Catharine Parr's hair was of this rare and splendid hue. Mrs. Strickland, who possessed a ringlet taken from this queen's head, after she had lain in her grave for more than 200 years, describes it as exactly resembling threads of burnished gold; and singularly enough the daughter of Catharine's rival was rich in the same respect. Elizabeth was proud of her golden hair, and delighted to display it for the admiration of her courtiers. Of course, her foes declared it was red, not golden; and in a miniature of the time the painter has certainly lent color to the libel (as libel it undoubtedly was—for some half-a-dozen years ago, a lock of the great queen's hair was discovered in a copy of Sidney's Arcadia at Wilton. It had been presented to the chivalric poet by Elizabeth, and is described as soft, silky and wavy, of a beautiful golden brown color, without a tinge of red, and still shining as though powdered with gold dust.

SIMPLE SOUL.—A lady on the grand stand at the Saratoga races told a newspaper correspondent that she had $28,000 worth of diamonds in her hair, that she felt perfectly "safe," as there were no pickpockets admitted within the gates, and her husband had put a policeman behind her with nothing else to do but to see that her diamond head suffered no violation.

[illegible] OF THE STATE

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 1[illegible]

Not to be Mentioned

The Copperheads generally seem to have caught an idea which was first [illegible] by the [illegible] intellect of the author of the "Nasby papers." This true "Democratic" genius some time [illegible] published a letter wherein he urged as a [illegible] ary measure that we should never speak in the presence of the reconstructed chivalry of the great exploits of our soldiers in quelling the rebellion. The Copperhead papers approve the suggestion and earnestly entreat the people and the press not to mention the names of our great soldiers hereafter lest we thereby nettle the sensitive chivalry beyond all endurance. Grant is to be treated with cold and ungrateful neglect. Sherman is to be forgotten. Sheridan must pass into oblivion. Wadsworth and Baker and Berry, and Sedgwick and legions of the now honored dead are to sleep in unvisited graves and all to propitiate the men who traitorously fought to destroy their lawful Government. Truly this is a wonderful method of conciliation. None but a Copperhead is base enough to deliberately propose to hew down the monuments and scatter the ashes of our country's defenders.

There is a set of Northern men who have always done the bidding of their Southern political masters. Nay more, they have usually anticipated their masters' wishes and abased themselves more completely before their power than their masters have commanded them to do. It is natural, perhaps, for those despicable ones, some of whom [illegible] the Copperhead press of Oregon, to fawn submissively upon the "chivalry." When they propose, as the New York News has done, to obliterate and destroy the records of the war, they imagine they are doing a thing which will gratify their old masters. Perhaps they will next ask us to level the mounds of our dead and drive the ploughshare over our fallen soldiers' graves. This would be of a piece with what they now ask of us. But we think history will be written and the stories of the war rehearsed in future, notwithstanding we are enjoined that these things are not to be mentioned hereafter for fear of exciting somebody's displeasure.

WANT TO BE "ANNEXED."—The people of Walla Walla seem just now to be in quite an unpleasant dilemma. They have no District Court owing to the absence of Judge Wyche and a large amount of legal business is awaiting attention. Again the Walla Walla people think that their town and county fail to receive due consideration at the hands of the legislators over on the Sound. There has always been considerable animosity between these two sections of Washington Territory. A writer in the Walla Walla Statesman proposes that things which have so long been going awry in that county be righted by annexing the remaining part of Walla Walla valley, including of course, the town—to Oregon. There seems to be considerable feeling upon this subject in Walla Walla. That the change would be a convenient one for that county hardly demands a doubt. We do not think the people of Oregon would interpose any objections in the way of "annexation." If Walla Walla wants to join us, Oregon we opine, is agreed. Congress will have to be consulted in the matter, and the consent of that body gained the remainder of the plan can be easily accomplished. If Walla Walla wants to come, let her put her affairs in a proper shape and come along.

RAYMOND'S LIFE OF LINCOLN.—The canvassing Agent for Oregon has placed upon our table the "Life, Public Services and State Papers of Abraham Lincoln," by Henry S. Raymond. Derby & Miller, New York, are the publishers. The work is handsomely executed, is an octavo volume of 808 pages and contains all of Mr. Lincoln's State papers, with his speeches, addresses, messages, letters and proclamations. The text connects them in their proper order, and succinctly details the circumstances under which they were issued or made. The documents given in this volume comprise many not heretofore published, and which are not only interesting but highly important, because of the light they shed upon the political history of the country during the past four or five years. We shall find space within a few days to make extracts from the work. The agent is now delivering the book to subscribers.

A NEW LIFE.—Reports from several of the Southern States of the revival of the various branches of industry and trade, are full of encouragement and promise. Ambitious traitors insisted on fighting the battle until the South fell through utter exhaustion. But though the ruin was wide-spread, and in some places complete that part of the country will soon recover. It is even now beginning a new life. In a few years it will be vastly more prosperous than ever before. And as—according to the fiction of the old poets—there arose a fresh flower from the streaming blood of Ajax, blooming in fragrant beauty upon the wound through which the hero's life escaped, so under the new regime from the soil of the States so severely punished for their late rebellion, will spring with renewed vigor every power or element that can conduce to the prosperity and greatness of a country.

EARTHQUAKE AT EUREKA.—On the Sunday previous to the earthquake at San Francisco the little town of Eureka upon Humboldt Bay received a severe shaking up. The following account of it by the Purser of the steamship Del Norte is given in the Bulletin:

The shock came on at nine o'clock in the morning and lasted several seconds, creating great consternation among the inhabitants, who fled in terror from their dwellings. Scarcely a chimney in the village but what was thrown down or badly cracked. The goods in the store of Olmstead & Knowles were thrown from their shelves, and a large portion of the crockery in P. H. Ryan's store was broken. The estimated damage done to property in the town is several thousand dollars.

Californians can expect very little security in future from these dreaded visitations.

FOOTPRINTS OF ANOTHER AGE.—Amongst the collection of facts which our Santiam correspondent has been enabled to make in the Cascade mountains, are the impressions of the feet of some huge extinct animal. Mr. Arnoup says that these foot marks were made when the rock was in an unconsolidated state, probably some thousands of years ago, and are observable for a considerable distance up a gulch, and that it would be no difficult task to chisel out portions of the rock containing the impressions. They are of an almost circular form and about twelve inches in diameter. They would form a valuable acquisition to a museum and we trust they will not, in this age of science, be lost sight of.

THE SHENANDOAH.—The Honolulu Gazette of Sept. 2d says that from a conversation between Capt. Cunningham of the whaleship [illegible] and the [illegible] of the pirate Shenandoah, as the former was about to leave his vessel after being captured by the latter, and from subsequent action, it is pretty certain that the pirate would not visit the Ochotsk sea again, but would take a turn down through Bristol Bay, in which event he would be most likely to be heard from next at Victoria or perhaps at some Mexican port.

By the fall of a crowded balcony at St. Paul Minnesota on the 26th of August, while the procession escorting General Grant was passing, 20 persons were precipitated to the pavement, seventeen of whom were badly and three fatally injured.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO OCTOBER 9.

The Georgia Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The Herald's Savannah correspondent says that the election in Georgia passed off quietly. No military were near the polls, everything in connection with the election being conducted by civil officers. In a majority of counties but one ticket was run, and it is said that good delegates have been selected [illegible] the new order of things. Though planters [illegible] Savannah, from [illegible] of negroes [illegible] next year's crop will be [illegible].

General News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The Evening Star [illegible] New Orleans [illegible]. The San Antonio Herald [illegible] that it is the intention of the [illegible] government [illegible] the Indian Border [illegible] will send out a strong detachment to scour the country. General Custar with his division of cavalry will soon be ordered to Austin, from which base of operations detachments will be sent into the country lying immediately north and west of the State capital.

The work of reorganizing the State Government is progressing as rapidly as possible. One hundred and three counties have completed their organization; thirty are yet to be organized.

The universal good condition of the soldiers is the theme of almost constant remark.

The Houston [illegible] says: While collisions [illegible] take place between the civil and military authorities in other States, none occur in Texas. Gov. Hamilton and his appointees are very popular.

A Washington dispatch says: Reports are in circulation to the effect that the Cabinet has determined, after full consideration to sustain the President in sending a fleet and some troops to San Domingo to put a stop to the civil war now raging between the negroes in that beautiful island. The Haytian Government was represented here, and recently a representative from the insurgent chief also made his appearance. From the representations made by both President Johnson is satisfied that something ought to be done but will shed no blood uselessly. The expedition will consist of four war steamers and ten transports with 6000 troops. Geffrard is said to be willing to accept American mediation.

Mrs. Ingraham, sister of the rebel General, made her appearance at the Provost Marshal's office to-day asking permission to take the oath of allegiance which was administered by the Provost Marshal.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—The United States warehouse on Dickinson street containing [illegible] thousand barrels of coal oil, was destroyed by fire this [illegible]. Loss $600,000; insurance for $500,000.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 7.—At the Methodist Conference to-day, held in Edgefield, great enthusiasm was manifested at the introduction of Bishop Soule, the oldest Bishop of that faith in the world. All present rose to their feet at his entrance and a recess was had during which he received the congratulations of clergymen from all parts of the country.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—This morning the counsel for young Ketchum announced that he would put in a plea of guilty to the indictment charging his client with forgery. It appears that the prisoner proposed to plead guilty, but as matters affecting the late firm and their creditors were still pending and unfinished, and his explanations and testimony are still required by those interested, it was desirable to defer the plea to as late a day in the present term as practicable. The District Attorney said that such a request was not unusual and gave notice that the plea must be put in on the last day of the term. This was agreed to.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—A Washington dispatch to the Post says that the Navy Department has ordered the ex rebel ram Stonewall (at Havana) to be brought to one of our Navy Yards.

PIT HOLE, Oct. 9.—The tanks of the largest well in Pit Hole, known as the Grant, containing 4,000 barrels of oil, caught fire about one o'clock this morning, spreading destruction in all directions. Thirteen derricks and engine houses were destroyed; total loss, $1[illegible]000.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9.—The drug store of Renick & Lovingallus, and the warehouse of H. B. Ketchum, at St. Joseph, were burned on Thursday; loss of the former, $60,000, mostly insured.

MOBILE, Oct. 6.—The Planter's warehouse, with 1 000 bales of cotton, was burned last night. Loss 800,000, which was mostly covered by insurance.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 6.—Bonistery, one of the editors of the Richmond Bulletin, has been released from arrest.

European News.

QUEENSTOWN, Oct. 1.—The Fenian prisoners were brought before the Police Magistrates at Dublin yesterday. Among the number was the editor and proprietor of the Irish People newspaper. Barry, counsel for the Crown, made a long speech. He said that within the last fortnight 1,500 pounds sterling had arrived from America to be expended in revolutionizing, and by that day's mail the Government had intercepted a letter for one of the prisoners named Lapper containing a draft for 410 pounds sterling on the house of Rothschild, and several other letters containing bills of exchange. One of the prisoners had made two hundred of those murderous weapons (pikes). Numerous revolvers and breast plates were also found in possession of the prisoners connected with the Irish People newspaper. He quoted an incendiary paragraph, urging the employment of force, from a number of that paper which was about to be issued when seized. Barry concluded his speech by asserting that the Fenians were powerful, both in Ireland and in America, and that if frustrated this affair would end all such hopeless conspiracies. The evidence was then given against the prisoners, some of whom were identified as connected with the suppressed Fenian organ. The investigation was still pending and would probably last several days. At an examination of six of the Fenians at Dublin Castle yesterday evidence was put in showing that the plot of the Fenians was of the most sanguinary character. It was to put down the nobility and aristocracy and land owners and to assassinate them all in the breaking out of the rebellion. The Duke of Leinster and others were named for assassination. The linen manufacturers were to be called on to give material aid to support the cause under threats of extermination and confiscation of their property if they refused to do so. The evidence of treason against the prisoners is said to be most complete.

The Tribune's Matamoras correspondence of Sept. 18th, says: On the 17th, Guadaloupe Garcia who four years ago was in command of the [illegible] at Brownsville, reports that a loan of five millions has been effected by the Liberal Minister to the United States. He also says arms and other warlike material have been bought [illegible]. If this be true the [illegible] will enable the Liberal Government to raise [illegible] from ten to twenty five thousand men. This it has had in view for some time past. Such a corps would enable it to retain all the country north of the San Leandro river before the French could collect an adequate force to arrest its progress.

Charleston, South Carolina.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Advices from Charleston says: Mayor Macbeth, the Common Council and other members of the old civil government of that city have been restored to the exercise of their functions, and the principal municipal buildings have been given up to them in accordance with a military order issued by Gen. Bennett, commander of the sub District of Charleston, October 2[illegible]. All cases between the whites and negroes are to be turned over to the Provost Marshal, and the military police will for the present be retained. The organization of the State militia is rapidly progressing in some sections. The militia are to be subject to the orders of National officers and to cooperate with them in the suppression of the prevalent lawlessness. Gen. Bennett has issued an order directing [illegible] the formation of this State force, every member of which organization must take a National oath of allegiance.

There is a great stir among the South Carolina politicians regarding the coming State and Congressional elections. Candidates are [illegible] the people through the newspapers. A Governor and the Members of the Legislature are to be elected October 18th.

North Carolina Secession Ordinance.

RALEIGH, Oct. [illegible].—The Constitutional Convention to-day passed unanimously an ordinance declaring that the ordinance of May 20th, 1861, the ordinance of secession, is and always has been null and void.

Mississippi Election.

CAIRO, Oct. [illegible].—A Jackson, Mississippi dispatch dated Oct. 4th says Humphreys' majority for Governor will probably be [illegible] thousand. [illegible] candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, in the Jackson District has 3,000 majority.

Matters in North Carolina.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The Herald's Raleigh correspondent says: The people of North Carolina, especially those around Raleigh are decided in their approval of the emphatic way in which the State Convention disposed of the ordinance of secession. The inhabitants are also reported as being extremely hostile to those men who insisted in plunging the State into rebellion. [illegible]

[illegible] OREGON IRON WORKS.—There is certainly at this [illegible] without any reference to [illegible] other branches [illegible] of pursuits in our city, no establishment or [illegible] of country that can [illegible] the pride of persons who wish to see the tide of prosperity [illegible] than that of the Oregon Iron Works. Established but a short time since, these works have grown [illegible] quite favorable to a comparison with any upon the Pacific coast in that exclusive branch [illegible] a long while it was a mortifying sight [illegible] for the development of the [illegible] in Oregon and the adjoining Territories [illegible] for the purpose of procuring suitable machinery with which to accomplish their aims. The [illegible] have done much to turn this state of things to a better aspect. When last year it was decided by the firm, then known as E. L. James & Co., to build on the block [illegible] by Seventh and Eighth, and Morrison and [illegible] streets, it was deemed by some a question [illegible] owing to the great difficulty to be expected [illegible] of the streets, to gain access to those [illegible]. The company, however, foresaw the increasing business and built a foundry of one single building about 40 by 30 feet. Since then the firm has changed and by the introduction of the latest and most approved machinery, and the addition of eminent [illegible] to-day, under the style and name of A. [illegible] have a main building 100 by 200 feet in size [illegible] 30 feet square, and a new cupola [illegible] the whole covering nearly the entire space of the block. The machinery in use by them, as the [illegible] remarked to us yesterday, [illegible] on paper and looked very well, but [illegible] were likely to get sold [illegible] from the manufactories [illegible] Machine Company of Fitchburg, Mass. [illegible] the Oregon Iron Works have lately received [illegible] machines, and others [illegible] expected here very soon. Their lathes, drill [illegible], boring and [illegible] machines, are [illegible] by fifty workmen. A lathe 22 feet in length [illegible] and large sized turning and boring machines are among the lot yet to arrive. At present the [illegible] in the construction of engines, [illegible] mills, flouring mill gear, Wheeler & Randall's [illegible], and machinery of this class. Among the [illegible] on hand are five of the last named [illegible] of the country, gearing for one flouring mill, three saw mills, a quartz prospecting mill [illegible] to go into the mountains for [illegible] New York [illegible] Esmeralda. This is worthy of special [illegible] arranged that a single mule can pack it [illegible] adapted for running by water, having [illegible] attached. Two sets of vats and [illegible] a Vass mill are being made, a large engine [illegible] just completed. The company are [illegible] Woodward's universally admired [illegible] pattern shop is occupied [illegible] in the [illegible] patterns, in addition to the stock on [illegible] comprise all of the late firm [illegible] & Moore, lately retired from the business at [illegible] City. The members composing the firm [illegible] are Gov. A. C. Gibbs, Mr. H. [illegible] of Buffalo, New York, and Mr. E. S. M[illegible] late of [illegible]. It is certainly worthy of all that may [illegible], so far as we are capable of judging.

[illegible] QUARTZ ROCK.—A poor quality of quartz from [illegible] lately discovered on Granite creek, in [illegible], shows a value of $60 to the ton, [illegible] at the Oregon Iron Works yesterday. The [illegible] abounds in ledges, many of them [illegible] $300 to the ton as has been shown by assay, [illegible] a five stamp mill, with which to [illegible] at once, in that vicinity, has been [illegible]. The district is not over 110 miles [illegible] by as good a route as any in the country. [illegible] our friends interested in Granite, but [illegible] of Lookilliteus owning a foot in that [illegible] to think of it now, we own no quartz [illegible] 10 feet in the Wild Cat, on which we [illegible] at the beginning of the quartz fever to [illegible] luck! We have prospected nearly every [illegible] country—some of them being rich enough—[illegible] would say—"to pay off the national [illegible]."

[illegible] ARREST.—On Wednesday the case of the State [illegible] C. A. Burchardt, charged upon keeping [illegible] house on Sunday, was tried by jury [illegible] sitting as a Justice of the [illegible] plea of the defense interposed a former conviction for the same offense before a Justice, wherein defendant had been fined $5 and costs and paid the same. [illegible] Attorney held the former action [illegible], that he knew nothing about it, and that [illegible] was made on the same day in the [illegible] was committed—that the offense was [illegible] the complaint had been made, etc. The [illegible] to agree, three being for finding guilty, and [illegible], as we understand.

[illegible].—This fine vessel is advertised [illegible] Street, to leave on Tuesday night. She [illegible] and passengers. On the last trip of the [illegible] took sixty passengers on the promise [illegible] in California in time for the Eastern [illegible]. It was then the 7th of the month, and [illegible] to leave on the 18th. Crossing the bar [illegible] on the 9th, he sailed for San [illegible] there on the 12th, in ample time to [illegible]. The round trip was made to Oregon [illegible] in 23 days. For four years his average [illegible] same vessel, between Victoria and San [illegible] days. With this record we should [illegible] to carry passengers.

[illegible], Perry & Co. have just completed [illegible] side-walk, in front of the premises of [illegible] and Messrs. Failing and H. W. Corbett. [illegible] This class of walk is well adapted to our [illegible] floor, put into the building of Mr. Cor[illegible] of Oak and Front streets, has stood the [illegible] for seven years, during [illegible] small place has given out, and that [illegible] accidental falling of a heavy box [illegible] way. No rats trouble cellars, or bore [illegible] floors, when properly put down.

[illegible].—On the rocks at the Willamette [illegible] has always been considered a place of [illegible], some erratic person has [illegible] and built his cabin. We are [illegible] move on the board was designed to [illegible] Transportation Company, who [illegible] to connect their up-river [illegible] the falls. The company kept on [illegible] and notwithstanding the "Jump-[illegible] the most "men" to work [illegible] their basin inside of two [illegible].

[illegible] good natured friend [illegible] Oregonians with superior [illegible] at his restaurant, on the grounds [illegible] the State Fair, has returned to this [illegible] of Mr. Prindle to "keep a hotel" [illegible] at that time, and our wish is [illegible] open restaurants for many years at [illegible] holiday season.

[illegible] new steamboat is about to be constructed [illegible] for the Willamette Steam Navigation [illegible] the Senator, of the People's Transportation [illegible]. The Willamette is a new line on [illegible] for the trade and travel now enjoyed [illegible]. The new boat will run in connection [illegible] the railroad portage at the falls [illegible] by the 15th day of December.

We are informed by private note that Mr. [illegible] left this city on the 2d day of May [illegible] distant former home in Bavaria, has [illegible] after a speedy passage. He reached [illegible] July—was twenty days from San Francisco. We are still smoking his cigars, and [illegible] for his health.

[illegible] Mr. Suttman a somewhat noted [illegible] at present on a trip up the Columbia [illegible] of scenery by the way. He [illegible], and among other views will obtain a [illegible], and the surrounding scenery [illegible] is said to be the most pleasing.

[illegible] Mr. Jesse Bowles, living about nine [illegible] on the Columbia river bank, has [illegible] fine sweet potatoes can be raised in [illegible] coming from abroad. Samples of the [illegible] were left with us yesterday. They [illegible].

[illegible] Mr. D. F. Harrington has lately con[illegible] building, which he is finishing on the [illegible] corner of Ash and Front streets, for a fruit [illegible] is purchasing at the new place.

[illegible].—A company of the [illegible] lately arrived from the East, left Ft. [illegible] week to relieve the garrison at Fort Dalles [illegible] White Bluffs and the Hayne [illegible].

[illegible] Chichester, committed on Tuesday [illegible], has been declared insane, and will go to [illegible]. He practiced his pugilistic exercise upon [illegible] until it became necessary to [illegible] him.

[illegible].—Capt. J. O. Van Berg[illegible] has chartered [illegible] Ferry boat, and will have her running on the [illegible] boat in future.

[illegible].—It may not be unimportant to know [illegible] the interruption of the Overland Mail, Wells [illegible] & Co. have not missed a trip. We received our [illegible] Marysville papers regularly [illegible].

[illegible] Central Pacific railroad company have [illegible] that they will be able to construct a line [illegible] of the mountains to the Truckee [illegible] grade not exceeding 20 feet per mile, [illegible] expected to be compelled to use 105 [illegible], which is the result of several months [illegible].

[illegible] annual report of the New York Central Park [illegible] Commissioners shows that that popular [illegible] has cost the city $9,151,809 10. [illegible] of McAdamized carriage road, and 22 [illegible] and bridle walk are in use. The [illegible] of visitors last year was 5,710,070, and [illegible] maintenance was $150,000.

[illegible] BIBLE SOCIETY.—The Executive Committee [illegible] County Bible Society will meet this [illegible] at the business house of Messrs. [illegible], 97 First street. A full attendance [illegible].

O. S. FRAMBES, [illegible]

[illegible]. Drill this (Friday) evening, [illegible] Cisterns. Per order
W. L. LEONARD, Secretary.

TROUBLE BREWING.—The Vedette, published by the soldiers of Camp Douglas, Great Salt Lake City, in an editorial on the suppression of the Mormon reports of Brigham's late addresses has the following mysterious paragraph:

"In some entirely Mormon settlements, certain warlike preparations are observed, [illegible], and Mormons of doubtful loyalty, to Brigham, are [illegible] any [illegible] to learn a secret, let [illegible] skirts of [illegible], and they will see [illegible] going forward after dark at night, and concentrating at the place of rendezvous [illegible] manœuvres performed [illegible] what is [illegible] and a key to the silence of the Deseret News on the subject of Brigham's discourses."

ESSAY ON DOGS.—Josh Billings favors the world with a brief essay on dogs: "Dogs in the lump," says Josh, "are useful, but they are not always profitable. The Newfoundland dog is useful to save children from drowning, but you have got to have a pond of water and children running about handy, or else the dog ain't profitable. There ain't nothing made handier than a Newfoundland dog. But terriers are useful to ketch rats, but the rats ain't profitable after you have ketched them. The shepherd dog is useful to drive sheep, and if you have to go and buy a flock of sheep, and pay more than they are worth, just to keep the dog busy, the dog ain't profitable. [illegible] helpless, and very useful, but if you don't hold them up [illegible] the time they ain't profitable at all. The coach dog is one of the useful[illegible] I know of, but you have got to have a coach and that ain't always pleasant, or you can't realize from the dog. Thus we see that while dogs are generally useful, there are times when they ain't generally profitable."

EMIGRATION SOUTH.—There is now a considerable tide of emigration from the North, most of it is under the auspices of Gen. Sutherland's agency, which has established an office for the Northern States at No. 62 Broadway, New York. The company offers land for sale throughout the Southern States, and its agents estimate, at least, that 100,000 emigrants will go from the Northern States during the present year. There was some opposition to the movement, when first commenced, by Southern people, but they are gradually becoming favorable to the new order of things, and are putting their lands in the hands of these agents at low figures, many being convinced that Northern men will generally assist the development of the resources of the South.

A Washington letter states that a few days since a man called at the White House with a note from a distinguished politician to the President, stating that the bearer was a poor man, who was not possessed of the $300 which he understood was necessary to obtain a pardon, and trusted to the generosity of the President to grant him one. The man, by order of the President, was immediately conducted to the door, much to his astonishment, for it is to be presumed that he was innocent of all intention to insult the President, though the politician who wrote the note was not.

PARSON BROWNLOW'S INDORSEMENT OF REBEL CLAIMS FOR PARDON.—A letter from Chattanooga says that a short time since Gideon J. Pillow sent in his application for Governor Brownlow's endorsement of his petition for pardon. He endorsed it as follows: "Were I the President of the United States, I would pardon this man on the ground that nothing but his vanity took him into the rebellion." On another application he indorsed as follows: "This man deserved hanging before the rebellion, and has done nothing since to lessen his chance."

USE NONE BUT THE BEST.—Thousands of worthless preparations are scattered broadcast over the land, purporting to be SPECIFICS for Consumption. Some may possess a little merit, but when it is known beyond the possibility of successful contradiction, that NEWELL'S PULMONARY SYRUP has accomplished all that is claimed for it, as a remedy for ALL affections of the CHEST and LUNGS, it seems little short of criminal neglect for persons requiring such a remedy, to waste the "golden moment" on experimenting with any other. It is equally applicable and efficacious in all cases, young or old.

Of Portland,
FIRST PREMIUM ON BOOTS!

HE TAKES THIS OPPORTUNITY TO INFORM his friends and the public generally that he is prepared to make to order, in the latest Style, French Double Uppers, Cork Sole, Water Proof Boots, Pump, Channel, Opera and Well Dress Boots.

He would recommend the French Double Uppers Cork Sole, Water Proof Boots to those afflicted with Rheumatism, or cold feet during the rainy season in Oregon. And the Pump Boots to those wishing to trip the light fantastic toe.

If any want a fit, or wear,
Just call at Lumsden's shop;
For all the persons he will not spare
To please his friends who stop.

And if you wish more ease on earth,
Your measure let him get—
Now call, and hold your money's worth
He is the man, I you bet.

He makes the Pump, the Opera Boot,
The Wellington and Cossack;
The Cork and Buckstrap, to suit you,
And also make them quick.

The Boston sandal he can make,
Or lady's slipper, either;
For all his greatness to make,
To making Boots of leather.

Sign of the Big Boot, on Alder street, between Front and First (opposite C. H. Mack, Dentist.)

His superiority of style, delicacy of execution, and durability of workmanship cannot be surpassed.

HUFELAND'S SWISS BITTERS will at once recommend them to the invalid as a TONIC [illegible] of a GOOD AND HEALTHFUL TONIC AND INVIGORATOR. As a Purifier of the Blood, acting surely yet gently on the secretions of the Liver and Kidneys, they are unsurpassed, and a most agreeable drink. se12d3p

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it [illegible] the known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; it also [illegible] gives strength to the digestive organs, brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. [illegible] WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME [illegible] standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give relief even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
